

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THREE NEW BOOKS. THE WAY OF THE WORLD. A Novel. By D. Cress...

THE REMARKABLE HISTORY OF SIR THOMAS UPONORE. By R. D. Blackmore. 16mo. Pp. 255. Harper & Brothers.

PROFESSOR CONANT. By the Hon. J. S. Huntinton, C. C. 12mo. pp. 291. R. Worthington.

It is said that in "The Way of the World" Mr. David Christie Murray has made the likeness of another exciting libel, one that has not followed that which worked for Mr. Yates.

Mr. Blackmore is the possessor of a whimsical and most engaging style. It would be impossible for him to write a story which should be utterly without charm so long as that style is preserved and so long as he retains the quiet humor and poetical fancy that had his fullest flowering in "Lorna Doone."

Mr. Huntinton is the possessor of a Canadian Postmaster-General, has written a novel, into which he has put his social observations and his political theories.
